OUR ADDED VALUE? UNPARALLELED SERVICE

We blend the culture of hospitality with expert consultancy, combining innovation with a tailored and personalized approach. Our 24/7 assistance guarantees travelers a seamless and worry-free experience.

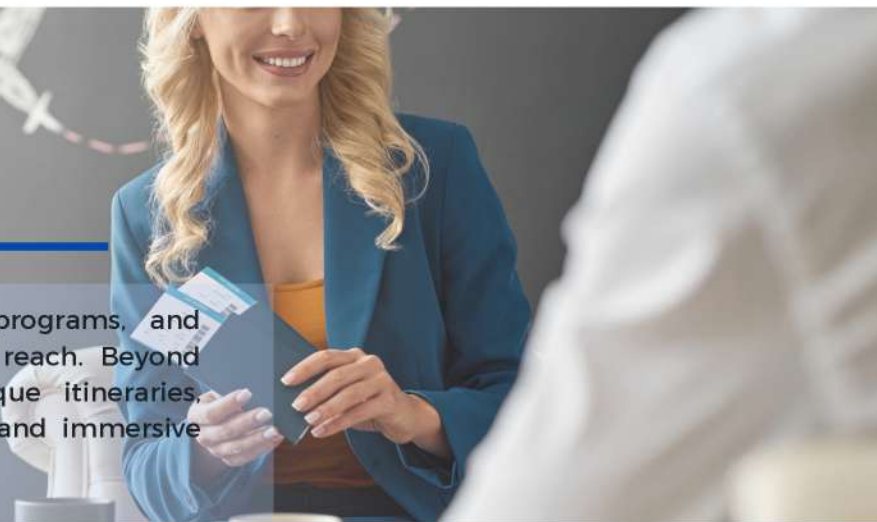

TRUST THE LOCAL EXPERTS

At Scenario Italia, our philosophy is rooted in deep knowledge of our country and an unwavering commitment to selecting only the best suppliers. This ensures that every service meets the highest standards of excellence.

TOP CONSULTANCY AT YOUR SERVICE

We offer swift responses, customized programs, and flexible pricing. No destination is out of reach. Beyond traditional travel options, we craft unique itineraries, including off-the-beaten-path adventures and immersive "experiential" journeys.

DISCOVER, EXPLORE, AMAZE

From luxury hotels, boutique stays, and historic residences to castles, farmhouses, and exclusive venues, we design every aspect of your journey. Our services include transportation, local guides, excursions, cultural experiences, and gourmet dining, transforming any trip into an unforgettable adventure.

TOURISM WITH A HUMAN TOUCH

We personally know every supplier and partner we work with, ensuring that our service is as warm and personal as it is professional. Our dedicated team reflects this approach, prioritizing attentiveness, reliability and excellence.

EXPERTS IN CRAFTING

CUSTOMIZED, PERSONALIZED TOURS

For individual travelers looking for a top-end and customized product, we have developed a range of highly appealing proposals: these are the pearls of Scenario and they are distinguished by their refinement in content and a vast array of opportunities.

FOR THOSE SEEKING SOMETHING EXTRA

Indulge in themed itineraries, food and wine tours, private villa dinners by the sea or in the countryside, exclusive cooking classes, and visits to renowned wineries or farms. We specialize in crafting extraordinary experiences, often stepping beyond the conventional to deliver something truly exceptional.

TAILOR-MADE F.I.T. & GROUP TRAVEL

Our group trips are meticulously designed to provide enriching, hassle-free experiences. Whether scheduled departures or customized itineraries, we cater to all types of travelers—couples, friends, and solo explorers alike. Thanks to Italy's mild climate, our tours operate year-round, offering unforgettable experiences in every season.

Scenario Italia extends exclusive benefits to groups of 8-10 people, offering diverse itineraries that span the entire country—from our roots in Naples and Campania to every hidden gem across Italy.

CAMPANIA FELIX

You could return to Campania a hundred times and still uncover something new and deeply captivating. Naples, a city unlike any other, enchants, draws you in, and leaves an indelible mark on your heart. It is a vibrant symphony of colors and scents, music and language, art and history, nature and creativity. An open-air museum and theater, Naples is simply irresistible.

Beyond the city, a wealth of wonders awaits—brehtaking destinations like the Amalfi Coast, the Sorrento Peninsula, and Caserta, home to the magnificent Royal Palace. Then there are the islands of the Gulf: Ischia, famed for its thermal waters; Procida, with its postcard-perfect charm; and Capri, known for its glamour but, above all, a treasure trove of stunning landscapes and unique sites, including the must-see Blue Grotto. One of Campania’s greatest advantages is its accessibility. From a single, well-connected starting point – often Naples itself – you can easily explore the region. Many of Campania’s most celebrated attractions are within convenient reach by land or, in some cases, by sea. The region is also a cultural treasure trove, home to multiple UNESCO World Heritage Sites. While Pompeii is world-renowned, the archaeological wonders of Herculaneum, Oplontis, and Paestum offer equally fascinating glimpses into the ancient world.

Beyond its cultural and historical riches, Campania is a paradise for food and wine lovers. The region’s cuisine is a sensory journey in itself. Scenario has carefully selected some of the finest local dairy producers, where visitors can witness the artisanal creation of the famous buffalo mozzarella—tasting included, of course. Similar experiences await for other renowned regional delicacies, offering immersive culinary adventures.

EXPERIENCE THE AUTHENTIC NEAPOLITAN "SCENARIO"

Planning a individual holiday, group trip, conference, corporate retreat or team-building event? Naples is the perfect destination, seamlessly blending professional engagements with world-class hospitality, rich culture, and unparalleled leisure.

At Scenario Italia, we specialize in designing, planning and customizing stays, tours and events to provide unforgettable experiences. Our exclusive network of partners—including luxury hotels, top guides, historic palaces, grand villas and seaside estates with private access and 24/7 assistance — offers the ideal setting for both leisure and business trips. We craft exceptional experiences, private tours and cultural immersions to gourmet dining, artistic pursuits, and sports activities — all infused with the unmistakable charm of the Mediterranean.

So, come and join us to experience the authentic Neapolitan "Scenario"!

Day 1 – Naples city centre & pizza experience

Arrival in Naples with assistance from the Scenario team, transfer to a 4-star hotel. In the early afternoon, meet your guide for a "Neapolitan Stroll" through the city's monumental landmarks. From Maschio Angioino to Castel dell'Ovo, passing through Via Toledo, Via San Carlo, Piazza del Plebiscito, and Borgo Santa Lucia. Enjoy a traditional Neapolitan pizza dinner at a charming waterfront restaurant.

Day 2 – The old town and its iconic places

In the morning, guided tour through 20 centuries of history, exploring the heart of Naples' center. Highlights include Piazza del Gesù with the Church of Gesù Nuovo, The Monastic Complex of Santa Chiara, the famous San Gregorio Armeno, the street of nativity scene artisans, Sansevero Chapel, home to the stunning Veiled Christ, Museum of the Treasure of San Gennaro.

Enjoy a street food lunch in the historic center. In the afternoon, visit Rione Sanità, one of Naples' trendiest districts, birthplace of the legendary actor Totò, where deep-rooted Neapolitan traditions are still alive.

Day 3 - Vomero & Spanish Quarters

In the morning, visit Metro Line 1 Toledo Station, called the most beautiful metro station in Europe. Enjoy a Vomero guided tour, with the monumental Certosa di San Martino, offering breathtaking views over the city.

In the afternoon, experience an urban trek through the lively Spanish Quarters, where narrow, winding streets are lined with bustling shops, cozy cafés, and authentic local eateries. The area is also adorned with striking street art, creating an immersive blend of sights, sounds, and aromas that perfectly embody the soul of Naples. Dinner at a traditional restaurant near Piazza del Plebiscito.

Day 4 - Pompeii

In the morning, guided tour to the archaeological site of Pompeii, recently enriched with new, extraordinary discoveries offering deeper insights into life before the eruption. In the early afternoon, transfer and end of services.

BEAUTIFUL SICILY

The land where lemons bloom, the largest island in the Mediterranean, Sicily reveals its charm from the moment you arrive—whether by land, sea, or air. From the splendor of Palermo to the picturesque fishing villages, this island captivates with its vibrant colors and unpretentious beauty. A land rich in emotions, deep-rooted traditions, and an unparalleled artistic and cultural heritage, Sicily boasts everything from ancient Greek temples to magnificent Baroque churches. No video or photograph can ever replace the experience of seeing these wonders with your own eyes.

Nothing compares to the feeling of wandering through the alleys of Ortigia in Syracuse, strolling through the fishing villages of Cefalù, or breathing in the salty air along the coastline and its islands. Then there's the magic of Mount Etna, the enchanting gardens of Taormina, the dances and songs, the lively traditions and festivals. And, of course, the island's exquisite cuisine.

Our Scenario itineraries blend history, art, nature, and gastronomy, curating a selection of the most captivating experiences. From citrus groves to olive oil production, from Pachino tomatoes to fine wines and cheeses, and, of course, the island's famous pastries—there is something to delight every palate, young and old alike. Our tours, available for individuals and groups, offer curated routes through eastern Sicily—from Ragusa to Syracuse, Catania to Taormina, Modica to Noto, and Caltagirone to Piazza Armerina—immersing travelers in the splendor of Sicilian Baroque. Alternatively, explore western Sicily, from Palermo to Trapani, Mazara del Vallo to Selinunte, and all the way to Marsala and Agrigento, where tradition, landscapes, art, and history come together in perfect harmony.

LAZIO CAPUT MUNDI

While inevitably tied to Rome, the "Eternal City," Lazio shines with a light of its own. Medieval villages, ancient ruins, papal palaces, monasteries, and stunning Renaissance gardens welcome visitors, immersing them in echoes of the Roman era and the Etruscan civilization. With its breathtaking parks, serene lakes, and a rich array of local delicacies, the region delights even the most discerning palates.

The area surrounding the capital is both captivating and full of surprises. Steeped in history, nature, and gastronomy, Lazio offers a journey through time, revealing hidden cultural and scenic gems. Exploring this region means discovering enchanting destinations—from the Castelli Romani, Castel Gandolfo, Tivoli, and Frascati to the charming villages and caves of Ciociaria and the Ausoni Mountains, all the way to the stunning Riviera di Ulisse and the Aurunci. And, of course, there's Rome, whose unparalleled beauty we showcase with an expert touch, offering an unconventional and immersive experience.

Lazio's coastline is equally mesmerizing. Lush landscapes embrace miles of fine sandy beaches, a hallmark of Circeo National Park, stretching between Anzio and Terracina. Meanwhile, coastal gems like Gaeta, Sperlonga, Sabaudia, and Santa Marinella invite exploration, whether on foot or by boat. At Scenario, we carefully curate accommodations that highlight the region's hospitality, from charming agritourisms and upscale hotels to prestigious historic residences. To deepen your experience, we offer two exclusive tours: a four-day journey through the Castelli Romani and a five-day exploration of the Riviera di Ulisse.

MAGICAL BASILICATA

Nestled between two seas, Basilicata is an underrated gem of Italian tourism. Its diverse, unspoiled landscapes offer the perfect blend of seaside relaxation, mountain adventures, and rich cultural exploration—all in a single trip. Once known as "Lucania," this region boasts a deep historical heritage, rich in art and tradition. Its culinary scene is equally remarkable, featuring exquisite wines like Aglianico and a variety of delicious local specialties, from rustic durum wheat bread to caciocavallo cheese, Senise IGP peppers, and Ferrandina olives.

On one side, the Ionian Sea welcomes visitors with its soft, sandy beaches. On the other, the Tyrrhenian coastline enchants with hidden coves, sea caves, and rocky shores. Inland, rolling hills, lush forests, and towering peaks exceeding 2,000 meters define the landscape, alongside national parks, waterfalls, lakes, vineyards, and romantic villages that transport visitors back in time. Matera, the world famous "city of the Sassi," is a striking example, known for its unique rock-hewn dwellings and status as the third-oldest continuously inhabited historical center in the world—also named the European Capital of Culture in 2019. Other must-visit destinations include Acerenza, Melfi with its medieval castle from 1231, Metaponto and its archaeological park, and Craco, the hauntingly beautiful "ghost town" featured in several movies.

Basilicata's breathtaking scenery extends to Pollino National Park, Piccole Dolomiti Lucane, Garden of the Gods, and Mount Sirino, offering ideal settings for outdoor adventures like trekking. And then, of course, there's the sea—simply stunning. Maratea, Nova Siri, Policoro, and Marina di Pisticci each offer their own coastal charms, as Basilicata promises an unforgettable experience.

TUSCANY TO LIVE

Tuscany is a land of immense cultural heritage, brehtaking countryside, and rolling hills, dotted with picturesque villages and magnificent cities of art. Every traveler should visit its renowned destinations at least once in their lifetime—Florence, Siena, Arezzo, Lucca, and Pistoia—along with countless smaller yet equally captivating towns.

From the stunning landscapes of Val d’Orcia, Chianti, Maremma, and Garfagnana to the beautiful coastline and enchanting islands, Tuscany offers endless wonders. Its world-famous cuisine and exceptional wine production make it one of the most cherished regions on the planet. Scenario curates exclusive itineraries that showcase the very best of this extraordinary land, crafting tailor-made journeys to match each traveler’s tastes and interests—whether for individuals or groups. This includes the region’s spectacular islands, such as Elba and the Tuscan Archipelago, beloved by those seeking seaside escapes and sailing adventures.

Scenario’s program highlights two particularly captivating itineraries. A six-day journey, explores Tuscany’s artistic treasures, including Siena, Lucca, and above all, Florence—where retracing Dante’s footsteps is an unforgettable experience. Then, a four-day immersion in Chianti, takes travelers from Monteriggioni to Gaiole in Chianti and on to San Gimignano, whose iconic towers create a magical skyline. This itinerary also includes a visit to a prestigious winery, renowned for producing the celebrated Chianti wine.

MARCHE, ALL IN ONE

The Marche region embodies its very essence in its name—a land historically shaped by its role as a border territory of the Holy Roman Empire and later the Papal States. This rich heritage has fostered an enduring spirit of plurality and hospitality. While its artistic legacy is remarkable and unique, to fall under Marche's spell, one simply needs to take in its breathtaking landscapes: rolling hills that stretch endlessly, valleys traced by winding paths, vineyards and sunflower fields with sweeping views of the Adriatic, ancient villages fortified by buttresses and defense towers, open-air theaters, and natural stages where heroic and romantic tales have unfolded.

Cities and villages invite visitors on a journey through time, where art and centuries-old traditions whisper their stories. This is a journey to be taken slowly, in harmony with the tranquil pace of these lands. One can savor the stillness while wandering through the streets and squares of Urbino or Ascoli Piceno, amid Renaissance palaces and echoes of Leopardi's poetry. Or while exploring the Conero promontory, where cliffs and secluded beaches meet the crystalline waters of the Adriatic. For those drawn to magic and mystery, the Sibillini Mountains await, where myths and legendary figures seem to come to life.

Marche is also a land of extraordinary craftsmanship, where ateliers and workshops preserve age-old techniques, such as those still practiced at the historic Papal Paper Mill of Fabriano. As evening falls, music and theater take center stage. The Sferisterio of Macerata, an enchanting venue with remarkable acoustics, offers an unforgettable experience for music lovers. This rich tapestry of experiences is mirrored in Scenario's programs, where each activity unveils the beauty of a region that captivates like the ancient legends woven into its history.

PIEDMONT IS MAGIC

A trip to Piedmont is a journey through nature, culture, history, and world-class cuisine. Nestled in northwestern Italy, this region—central to the country’s unification—is renowned for its fine wines, rolling hills, majestic mountains beloved by winter sports enthusiasts, and cities steeped in history.

Piedmont offers countless experiences, beginning with Turin, an elegant and “magical” city in every sense. Once the capital of Italy, Turin is celebrated for its Baroque architecture, renowned museums, and distinctive style rooted in Savoyard tradition. Set along the Po River—the longest in Italy—the city serves as the cultural heart of a region where the Langhe and Monferrato stand out. Both UNESCO World Heritage Sites, these areas are dotted with charming villages and exceptional vineyards producing Barolo, Barbaresco, and Asti Spumante. Alongside the prized white truffle of Alba, these delicacies define Piedmont’s rich gastronomic heritage.

Though it lacks a coastline, Piedmont boasts breathtaking waterscapes, most notably the stunning Lake Maggiore. Home to the enchanting Borromean Islands, the lake is adorned with historic villas and magnificent Baroque gardens, offering a travel experience filled with timeless beauty and charm.

THE LAND OF VENICE

Veneto is one of Italy's most diverse and captivating regions, rich in cultural heritage and offering a wealth of unique experiences across history, art, nature, and gastronomy. Each province tells its own story, from the iconic Grand Canal of Venice to the majestic Dolomites, from medieval villages to rolling hills adorned with vineyards.

At the heart of this remarkable region lies Venice, a city like no other. Nestled in its shimmering lagoon, it was the capital of a powerful republic that shaped Mediterranean history for a thousand years. Around Piazza San Marco, the enchantment is endless, as are the opportunities to explore the wonders of Veneto.

The region's attractions extend from the plains—where Verona, the city of Romeo and Juliet, boasts its grand Roman Arena—to the architectural elegance of Vicenza, the artistic vibrancy of Padua, and the timeless charm of Treviso. Veneto is also a paradise for food and wine lovers, home to world-renowned wines like Amarone and Prosecco. Nature lovers will find breathtaking landscapes, from the serene shores of Lake Garda in the west to the majestic Dolomites in the north. Among them, the glamorous Cortina d'Ampezzo, 2026 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games venue, stands as the ultimate destination for winter sports and alpine luxury.
